

Sharing Customer Information With Affiliates & Third Parties

Webinar • March 15, 2010, 1:30-3:30 CT

This program explains provisions of both the Privacy Rules and the Fair Credit Reporting Act. It includes what information may and may not be shared, when is an opt-out program required, what information must be disclosed to whom and when it must be disclosed.

Two laws regulate sharing customer information with third parties.

- The privacy requirements of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act govern the sharing of information with non-affiliated third parties.
- The Fair Credit Reporting Act, as amended by the Fair and Accurate Credit Transaction Act (FACT Act), regulates sharing with affiliates.

Every financial institution in the nation is affected by these laws.

Why Participate?

This program explains the provisions of both the Privacy Rules and the Fair Credit Reporting Act. Coverage includes what information may and may not be shared, when an opt-out program is required (The new FACTA affiliate sharing rules require many banks that previously avoided an opt-out program to begin such a program.), what information must be disclosed to whom and when it must be disclosed. Participants receive a detailed manual that explains all of the rules. The handbook will continue to be a valuable resource long after the program has ended.

Highlights
