Conference Speakers

COLLEEN KETTENHOFEN: As an Arizona-based trainer, author and speaker, Colleen Kettenhofen places emphasis on accountability and having an action plan for personal and business success. She has spoken before conferences in 47 states and eight countries. She is co-author of 'The Masters of Success' with well-known authors Ken Blanchard and Jack Canfield.

DR. LANCE NAIL: Dr. Lance Nail, the Dean of the University of Southern Mississippi College of Business, took over his position on July 1. He previously served as chair of the Department of Finance, Economics and Quantitative Methods at the University of Alabama-Birmingham. The recipient of the Beta Gamma Sigma Professor of the Year Award at UAB, he is a University of Alabama graduate.

JENNY NOLEN: Jenny Nolen - called 'Alabama's Funniest Lady' – is enthusiasm personified. Nolen believes in order to be an effective leader, you must learn to laugh at yourself, even through adversity. She will guide attendees through a self-assessment of leadership skills. Raised in Wesson, Nolen is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi.

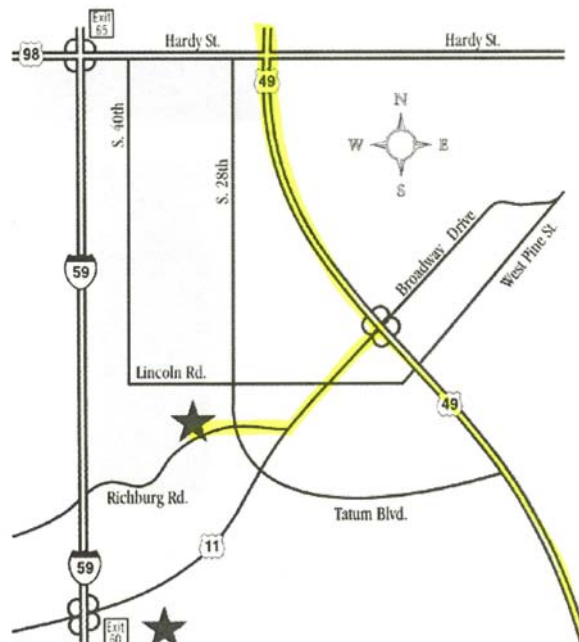

BILL SONES: William D. Sones, the 2008-09 Mississippi Bankers Association chairman, is president and CEO of Bank of Brookhaven, where he has worked for seven years. He is a former national president of the Independent Community Bankers of America and is very involved in the American Bankers Association. Sones is a Mississippi College graduate and is currently chairman of the Mississippi Home Corporation.

SHANE STANFORD: Shane Stanford is a teaching pastor for Main Street United Methodist Church in Hattiesburg. He is seen on television as host of programs 'The United Methodist Hour' and 'Time That Makes the Difference.' He speaks extensively, sharing his journey as a hemophiliac who has contracted HIV through a blood transfusion. Stanford is the author of 'When God Disappears.'
