Brookhaven banker elected vice president of Mississippi Young Bankers

JACKSON – Robb Massengill of Brookhaven has been elected vice president of the Mississippi Young Bankers, a section of the Mississippi Bankers Association.

Massengill was elected at the group’s annual convention, held March 18-22 in Point Clear, Ala. MYB serves as the educational arm of the Association, conducting programs for bankers and students around the state about saving, budgeting and more.

Massengill is a vice president and trust officer at Bank of Brookhaven, where he has worked for nine years. Previously, he served on the MYB Executive Council as treasurer, councilman-at-large and council member representing his area of the state.

Massengill holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of Mississippi, and a master’s degree from the University of Memphis. He also furthered his banking education by completing the Mississippi School of Banking and the Cannon Financial Institute. He and his wife, Fran, have three children, Maggie, 9, Gracey, 7, and Robert, 3. They are active members of Faith Presbyterian Church.
