Simpson County banker to serve on Mississippi Young Bankers board

JACKSON – Fountaine McNair of Magee has been elected to the Executive Council of the Mississippi Young Bankers, a section of the Mississippi Bankers Association.

MYB serves as the educational arm of the Association, conducting programs for bankers and students around the state about saving, budgeting and more. McNair will coordinate the efforts of the MYB County Chairmen in his area and work to promote the Banking on Your Future program in local schools. Banking on Your Future is an MYB education program which teaches students in grades 7-12 about banking and bank services.

McNair, who will serve on the MYB Executive Council until Spring 2011, will represent Group 6, which includes nine counties in Central Mississippi.

McNair is a senior loan officer, vice president and branch manager at PriorityOne Bank, where he has worked for 12 years. He has served as a MYB County Chairman for eight years.

McNair earned both a bachelor's and a master's degree from Alcorn State University. He has furthered his banking education by completing the Mississippi School of Banking, held at the University of Mississippi, and the Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University.

McNair and his wife, Sonya, have one son, Brennon, 6. They are members of Faith Tabernacle COGIC.
